

FIFI BOX

Fifi is perhaps best-known on television for her standout performance on Dancing with the Stars on Seven in 2007 and as Sunrise's Entertainment Editor, interviewing all the big names in Australia and overseas, like Russell Brand, Tina Fey, Denzel Washington, Robert Downey Junior...the list goes on!

Her early career was spent in regional Australia working at stations ZMC/ROXFM Port Macquarie, 3TR Traralgon and 3GG Warragul. In 2000 she co-hosted a late-night show on TTFM Melbourne and within months, was picked up by the Triple M network to co-host a national night show based on relationships. When the show came to an end, she moved to the breakfast timeslot to produce Amanda Keller, Mikey Robbins and Peter Berner.

Fifi Box has been a major player in Australian radio for the last 10 years and has been a wonderful part of the Austereo family during this time. More recently the bubbly personality has had her show (The Fifi Box Show) feature on the Today Network nationally on Saturdays from 10am-12pm where she shared the mic with a number of high profile Australian guests like Megan Gale, Hamish Blake, Andy Lee, Glenn Robbins, Sean Micallef and Natalie Bassingthwaight.

Now, she joins fellow blonde partner-in-crime, Jules Lund in the national Today Network drive slot from 4-6pm Monday-Thursdays.
